ROBERTO FONSECA
YESUN

OUT OCTOBER 18TH

Having proved himself, time and again, to be an artist of prowess and ideas, a musician with a questing jazz sensibility and deep roots in the AfroCuban tradition, Havana-born pianist Robert Fonseca releases Yesun, his ninth solo album, on 18 October.

"Yesun is the album I've always wanted to make," says Fonseca of a record that combines everything from jazz and classical music to rap, funk, reggaeton and electronica, ripping up the rulebook along the way. "All my influences are here. All the sounds and vibes that make me who I am."
